

WINDSOR CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

Friday 29th June 2012

Thank you for the lovely entry and I thoroughly enjoyed judging this breed. I would just like to highlight that the breed seems to be losing those lovely heads and also conformation, which is key to the fit for purpose function, is sadly lacking in quite a number of exhibits. However I was delighted with my winners who were very worthy of their placings.

VETERAN DOG OR BITCH (1)

1st & Best Veteran: Cardiff's Prosperity My Fair Lady ShCM. An 8 year old. Good movement, good head, clean lines, nice angulation looks well for her age.

MINOR PUPPY DOG (2) These 2 babies were certainly enjoying their day.

1st Adams & Grimes' Ansona Peter Pan. He is just 6 months but has all the makings of being a cracking dog. Loved his head and expression, moved OK, good depth and angulation.

2nd Davis' Wilchrimane Xcel. Another nice boy who really did not want to be in the ring. When he eventually settled showed his good movement.
