CHAMPIONSHIP DOG SHOW

Saturday 26th April 2025

Such a beautiful breed to judge. Our ring wasn't really big enough and I tried to manage it as best I could. I did speak with the show management and they were very receptive to a double ring next year. There is quite a variety of types, and sadly some a little too Foxhound in type. Many looked beautiful stood only to disappoint on the move. I think if some were in more muscular condition they would move better. Some were rather long, and some over angulated at the rear, giving too severe a slope in topine. Temperaments were all excellent. A couple of incorrect mouths.

VETERAN DOG (Entries: 4 Absentees: 0). Quality class, could easily have been an open class.

1st Stocksfell Chase The Ace (Mrs A J Wybergh). Super outline with curves. Liked his masculine head, lovely eye and expression. Enough neck into a well laid shoulder. Slightly too upright in pastern. Deep chest. He has a super rear. Moved really well. In wonderful hard condition. CC, I understand Sh Ch today well done.
